To enrich human life spiritually, we must connect to our Almighty (Ishtadev) with faith and devotion. We should behave and have intimacy with every living and non-living, on this creation of the Supreme.

In the human incarnation, the values like attention, intellect, feeling, conscience are primary values, birth.

To make human life worthwhile, we must allocate ten percent of our every work in service, social work, charity, worship.

God has given us twenty-four hours of time to conduct our life. Out of that two hours and forty minutes should be regularly allotted for service, social work (Pious work), worship.

Ten percent of our income should be donated to the poor and needy people for food, clothes, education, health care, etc.

Sincere help done without expectation, selflessly, builds a virtuous destiny and develops a sense of joy and contentment in our mind.

To achieve pious prosperity of our body, mind, wealth and to create virtuous destiny, keep the course of charity flowing and experience the grace of God continuously. Spirituality also continues to grow.
