Vision of Life

Serial Number 231

September 2022

A disciple pleaded with the Paur (well-versed/ knowledgeable) Rishi of the Upanishads, "O! Gurudev, give us the vision of life."

"My child, the vision of life comes in this word 'Anand'." Gurudev, "Please explain in detail."

My dear, the origin of our life is Bliss, Bliss is our core, Divine Bliss is our nature, and goal.

Today's busy, technology-aged man may not consider joy to be our basic nature, but joy is the goal of our life.

Indian philosophy considers the whole world to be blissful. He has used the word Satchidananda for divinity. The goal of every human being is to attain happiness. Its search is for joy, peace, happiness, prosperity.

Today's man seeks joy and finds sorrow. Joy is the wings of our flight. While sadness is a stone. That stone is blocking our speed.

To build the true temple of life, we can grasp the wealth of destiny that we have received from God, embrace it with love, then we will understand that we have found the key to happiness. This key alone can unlock the door to ultimate joy and happiness.
